AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into at Rockland, Massachusetts, on July 26, 2022 by and between the School Committee of the Town of Rockland, Massachusetts, hereinafter designated and referred to as the Committee, and the Rockland Day Care Employees, located at Rockland, Massachusetts, hereinafter designated and referred to as the Association, which is an employee organization, affiliated with the Rockland Education Association, acting as the agent of certain of the Employees in the employ of the Committee.

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS the Committee and the Association, in the manner and to the extent provided in this Agreement desire to enter into an agreement relating to salaries and other conditions of employment for the Employees described in Paragraph 20 in this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein contained and the performance by the Parties to this Agreement of the provisions and obligations hereinafter set forth, the Committee, the Association and the Employees hereby mutually and jointly agree as follows:

Article One

PREAMBLE

Paragraph 10. Recognizing that the establishment and maintenance of the highest possible standards are essential to the community and the national interest and that the legitimate and mutual interests of the students and the Employees are directly related to the quality and efficiency of the school program operated by the Committee, it is the intent and purpose of the Parties to this Agreement to provide orderly collective bargaining relations between the Committee and the Association, to provide procedure in the manner and to the extent provided in this Agreement for the prompt and peaceful adjustment of disputes or differences which might arise from time to time, to provide for the implementation, in the manner and to the extent provided in this Agreement of the rights and benefits of the Employees and to provide for the performance of their work by the Employees in a conscientious and skillful manner which will promote and assure the quality, continuity and efficiency of the operation of the Rockland Public Schools.

Paragraph 11. The Committee, the Association and the Employees recognize and accept the duty to cooperate fully, faithfully, individually and collectively in adherence to the provisions of this Agreement. For the purpose of achieving the objectives expressed in Paragraph 10, each Employee pledges that they will cooperate with the Committee in pursuing excellence of standards and methods, aiding and encouraging reliable attendance, exercising exemplary conduct and assisting in compliance with and the enforcement of the policies, procedures, regulations, and standards prescribed by the Committee, which are not contrary to the provisions of this Agreement.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 12. Except when otherwise specifically provided, references in this Agreement to numbered Articles and Paragraphs refer to correspondingly numbered Articles and Paragraphs in this Agreement. When they appear in this Agreement, the term “Day Care Employee” and the term “Employee” may be applied interchangeably.

Article Two

RECOGNITION OF THE ROCKLAND DAY CARE EMPLOYEES

Paragraph 20. Subject to the terms and provisions hereinafter provided and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 150E of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Committee, during the term of and to the extent provided in this Agreement, recognizes the Association as the exclusive collective bargaining representative with respect to salaries, wages and conditions of employment for the Employees employed by the Committee in the bargaining unit described as follows:

All full-time Day Care Employees who work at least six (6) hours per day for a minimum of 182 days and permanent part-time Day Care Employees who work three (3) hours per day or more for a minimum of 182 days, excluding Radio Station Personnel, Certified Teachers, and all other employees in the employ of the Committee. Individuals who hold teacher licensure may be employed as Day Care Employee. The term “Employee” shall include all the employees in the bargaining unit, including employees who work in the Daycare Program and the After School Program, described in this Paragraph. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement and except when the Association is notified otherwise in writing, the Committee designates the Superintendent of Schools as the agent of the Committee with respect to all matters pertaining to the administration of the provisions of this Agreement. The provisions of this Paragraph are intended only to describe the Employees covered by this Agreement and not any particular work, and all reference to an Employee or Employees in this Agreement shall be deemed to include male and female employees as the case may be.

Paragraph 21. The Superintendent shall have and retain the right to control, maintain, operate and supervise all the activities in the Rockland Public Schools; to select, train, assign, transfer and promote the Employees and to periodically evaluate and determine their qualifications; to interview, discipline, suspend or dismiss Employees in the manner provided by law and to limit Association activities, the distribution of literature and solicitation for money or other purposes during working hours and on the premises under the control or supervision of the Superintendent; to organize the supervisory staff and the Employees; to establish, change and discontinue the duties to be performed by the Employees, including the right to introduce improved methods, facilities, operations, processes, services and techniques; to establish, modify and enforce policies and regulations regarding any duties, conduct, discipline, schedules and safety regulations and all other rights pertaining to the operation and management of the business of the Committee and the establishment and change of conditions of employment not specifically given in this Agreement to the Association or to the Employees provided however, that the exercise of these rights shall not be contrary to any specific provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit the right of the School Committee to eliminate some or all the Day Care Employee on account of declining enrollment and/or budget deficiencies and said decision shall not be subject to the grievance procedure or to arbitration as provided in Article 19.

Paragraph 22. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or in any way restrict the right of the Committee to include Employees employed by the Committee who are not in the bargaining unit in the benefit programs as provided in this Agreement on a different basis than for Employees in the Bargaining units.

Paragraph 23. The Committee and the Association agree that the provisions of this Agreement shall be applied without regard to race, color, religious creed, sex or national origin, and that they will not during the term of this Agreement nor at any other time directly or indirectly or in any manner whatsoever apply or attempt to apply any discipline, discrimination or penalty against any Employee who engages or who does not engage in lawful Association Activities.

Paragraph 24. The Association enters into this Agreement on its own behalf and as the collective bargaining representative of the Employees in the bargaining unit as provided in Paragraph 20.

Paragraph 25. In the event of closure of the Day Care, employees will be able to request interviews for any openings, for which they qualified, within the district.

Article Three

CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS

Paragraph 30. It is agreed that neither the Association nor any Employee will directly or indirectly or for any reason cause, encourage, induce, threaten or engage in any work stoppage, slowdown, strike, withholding of services or any interference with any of the functions of the Rockland Public Schools. In the event that such prohibited conduct occurs, the Association will, promptly and in good faith, endeavor to terminate such prohibited conduct and to resolve the dispute in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

Paragraph 31. An Employee who engages or participates in the prohibited conduct described in Paragraph 30 shall be subject to disciplinary action, including reprimand, suspension and discharge and such disciplinary actions shall not be reviewable by arbitration, except that the fact of the participation of the Employee in such prohibited conduct will be subject to arbitration.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 32. All Day Care Employees will be under the specific direction and responsible to the Day Care Director, yet under the general direction of the Assistant Superintendent of Schools. All personnel will be expected to exercise the highest cooperation with principals of the various schools.

Article Four

EMPLOYEE ASSIGNMENTS

Paragraph 40. Each employee will be notified in writing of changes in their schedule at least one (1) week in advance. Every effort will be made to notify an employee as soon as possible in the event of schedule changes.

Article Five

STAFF IN-SERVICE TRAINING

Paragraph 50. Full time employees must document twenty (20) hours of training per year, effective the 2018-2019 school year. Rockland Public Schools will provide or make available this training.

Article Six

VACANCIES AND PROMOTIONS

Paragraph 60. Notices of vacancies in a position other than part-time will be posted on a bulletin board in each school building. The Assistant Superintendent will endeavor to post said notices as far in advance of the appointment date as practicable. Qualifications for a position will be included in the notice and changes in the qualifications will be posted on the bulletin boards before said position is filled. Also copies will be sent to employees via the school email system. During the months of July and August the notices of vacancies provided in this Paragraph will be mailed to the President of the Association at the address last known to the Assistant Superintendent.

Paragraph 61. All Employees will be given the opportunity to apply for the open positions. In selecting an applicant to fill a vacancy as provided in this Article, the Assistant Superintendent will give consideration to competence and attainment, the length of employment in the Rockland School System, and such other factors as the Assistant Superintendent considers relevant.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Article Seven

MISCELLANEOUS

Paragraph 70. Full-time Employees shall receive the difference between their regular pay and their jury pay if called to serve on a jury.

Paragraph 71. Employees of the Day Care shall receive the Intown Rate for their children in Day Care.

Paragraph 72. Any oral or written complaint regarding an employee received by the Assistant Superintendent or any other administrator from any parent/guardian, student, or other person will be called to the attention of the employee within five (5) school days if the complaint comes under consideration as a basis for and entry in the employee's personnel file.

Article Eight

EVALUATION

Paragraph 80. The performance of an Employee shall be observed openly and with the knowledge of the Employee. An Employee shall be given a copy of each evaluation report by his/her supervisors and he/she shall file a notification that he/she has received a copy of the report.

Paragraph 81. Employees shall be permitted to review the contents of their personnel file except for confidential references and other confidential material received by the Assistant Superintendent at the time of the employment of said Employee. The Employee shall acknowledge the opportunity to review the contents of their personnel file. Whenever derogatory allegations have been placed in the file of an Employee, they shall have the right to answer such allegations in writing to the Assistant Superintendent and the answers be appended to their file.

Paragraph 82. Employment may be terminated at any time for good and sufficient cause; however, two weeks' notice thereof shall be given by either party.

Article Nine

WORK YEAR AND WORK DAY

Paragraph 90. Day Care Employees will work throughout the calendar year, Monday - Friday, except on days where the Superintendent specifically closes the Daycare, and for legal holidays as defined in Paragraph 101 and in accordance with Article 16 vacations. New Employees may at the discretion of the Assistant Superintendent be required to attend additional orientation sessions.

Paragraph 91. All new Employees shall be subject to a three (3) month probationary period before being placed on permanent status. Employees will be allowed to compute their vacation periods and sick leave, where applicable, from the beginning of the period.

Paragraph 92. Except as otherwise provided in this Paragraph, and subject to the provisions of Paragraph 93, the starting and closing hours of the work day for Employees will be determined by the Director with the approval of the Assistant Superintendent of Schools. The full-time Employees shall work a minimum of six (6) hours per day and a maximum of eight (8) hours per day during the school year and the permanent part-time employees shall work a minimum of three (3) hours per day as determined by the Director, with the Approval of the Assistant Superintendent of Schools. The Committee shall establish the starting time and the dismissal time for the students in the Rockland Public Schools provided, however, that the maximum workday for the Employees shall conform with the provisions of this Paragraph 92.

Paragraph 93. In addition to the normal work day as provided in Paragraph 92, Employees shall attend and participate in such afternoon meetings, conferences and related activities pertaining to their work as directed by the Assistant Superintendent or the deputy provided however, that an Employee shall not be required to attend and participate in such activities for more than one (1) hour on two (2) occasions in a single month on a day when school is in session, except by mutual agreement otherwise between the Employee and the Assistant Superintendent. The Assistant Superintendent will endeavor; when it is found practicable, not to schedule meetings on Fridays, Holidays or on days preceding a vacation period.

Paragraph 94. In addition to the normal workday provided in Paragraph 92, Day Care Employees will be expected to work at whatever assignment the director deems to be in the best interest of the program. When necessary, these assignments include being assigned to different age group classes in the Day Care and to the After School Program. There will be no increase in salary based on other assignments unless additional hours are worked.

Paragraph 95. Employees will work throughout the calendar year, Monday-Friday, except for the holidays addressed in Paragraph 101. The regular work week is thirty (30) - forty (40) hours as determined by the Director. Every effort will be made to not decrease full time employees' hours. Should attendance drop on a given day, employees will be asked to leave without pay on a voluntary basis by seniority first, then on a rotating seniority basis. An employee will not be asked to leave for more than two (2) hours in any single week. Any work beyond 40 hours will be at time and one half.

Paragraph 96. If an employee is required to take additional training or workshops outside of the regular school day, the employee will be compensated at the contractual (regular) rate of pay.

Paragraph 97. Full time employees will be eligible for vacation as follows:

0-5 years	10 days
6-10 years	15 days
11-19 years	20 days
20+years	25 days

If a full time employee retires or resigns, before the end of the year, the vacation days will be prorated based on the number of days worked.

Paragraph 98. Day Care employees will receive compensation at their regular rate of pay for all emergency school closures.

Paragraph 99. Day Care workers can roll over or buy back five days (5) or a combination thereof.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 100 A. Day Care Employees with nine (9) college credits will receive a $500 differential, fifteen (15) credits a $600 differential, thirty (30) credits a $700 differential, forty-five (45) credits a $800 differential, and sixty (60) or more credits a $900 differential. This reimbursement will be paid in one (1) lump sum in the second payroll in September.

Day Care Employees are eligible for $300 per year reimbursement for costs related to recertification (DEEC and CDA).

Paragraph 101. Twelve month employees (employees working 30 or more hours) will be granted the following paid holidays:

July 4th, Patriots Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, MLK Day, President's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day and Juneteenth.

Paragraph 102. Salary increments for all Employees are not automatic and will be approved only when, in the opinion of the Assistant Superintendent, an otherwise eligible Employee has demonstrated a continued high standard of performance and improved efficiency of service. Annual salary increments for all Employees shall require the recommendation of the Assistant Superintendent.

Paragraph 103. Placement on the salary schedule shall be determined by the Assistant Superintendent of Schools with the approval of the School Committee providing, however, that this placement shall not be subject to the grievance procedure, or to arbitration as provided in Article 19.

Paragraph 104. In the event that an Employee does not report for work for a reason not approved by the Committee, the Committee may deduct from the salary payable to said Employee one (1) day's pay for each school day of absence. Except in the event of illness or an emergency as defined by the Assistant Superintendent, absence for more than one-half (1/2) of a school day shall be considered as absence for a full day.

Paragraph 105. A full-time Employee who has been in the employ of the Committee for more than ten (10) years, shall receive annual longevity pay according to the following schedule:

	After 10 yrs	After 14 yrs	After 19 yrs	After 24 yrs	After 29 yrs
2022-2023	$1,700	$2,100	$2,600	$3,000	$3,500

2024-2025	$1,900	$2,300	$2,800	$3,200	$3,700

For employees who leave service during the school year, longevity will be prorated, based on the number of days worked during the school year.

This may be received in one lump sum (minus deductions) the first pay period in December or in twenty-one (21) equal payments as part of the regular pay.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Article Eleven

SUPPLEMENTARY COMPENSATION

Paragraph 110. The performance of duties as provided in this Article shall be voluntary and subject to the specific compensation provided in future paragraphs.

The objectives and policies affecting the staffing and the extent of the duties described in this Article shall be determined by the Assistant Superintendent. In the manner and to the extent provided in future paragraphs, all assignments for the performance of the duties provided in this Article shall be for one school year. An Employee who receives supplementary compensation for the performance of the duties as provided in this Article shall not have released time because of said duties. The designation of an activity or of a position and a salary therefore as provided in this Article shall not be construed to require the employment of an Employee for said activity or position. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to create a position or to require the continuance of an existing position. Increases in supplementary salaries are based on satisfactory evaluations.

Paragraph 111. Assistant Summer Camp Director will be paid the amount of 2,500 this position became effective July 1, 2018. Site Coordinator will be paid the amount of 2,500 this position became effective July 1, 2022.

Article Twelve

INSURANCE AND RETIREMENT

Paragraph 120. As required by law, Employees who work twenty (20) hours or more per week shall belong to the Plymouth County Retirement System and deduction for this purpose shall be made automatically from the salary check.

Paragraph 121. The group insurance provided by the Town of Rockland and as amended during the term of this Agreement shall be applicable to the full-time Employees covered by this Agreement who advise the Assistant Superintendent in writing that they desire to participate in said group insurance. All accidents and injuries should be reported at once to the immediate supervisor and an accident form completed by the school nurse.

2022-2025 The employer shall pay 79% of group insurance provided by the Town of Rockland.

Paragraph 122. Employees who notify the Committee by February 1, 2023 of their intent to retire on or before June 30, 2023 will be entitled to receive a one-time $3,000 (prorated) separation benefit.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Article Thirteen

SICK LEAVE

Paragraph 130. In the manner and to the extent provided in this Article a full-time Employee who is unable to work because of illness or non-occupational injury requiring confinement or treatment by a licensed physician shall, upon notification to the Office of the Assistant Superintendent as soon as possible after the beginning of said illness or the occurrence of said injury receive sick pay up to a maximum of eighteen (18) days exclusive of accumulated sick pay as provided in Paragraph 131, in any single year. Up to five (5) of said eighteen (18) sick days may be utilized by an otherwise eligible employee in the event of serious illness of his/her children, parents, spouse, and/or other relative residing in the same household with the employee. The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply in the event of an injury incurred in the course of gainful employment or self-employment other than as an Employee of the Committee.

Paragraph 131. The sick pay as provided in Paragraph 130 shall apply to a full-time Employee who has completed one (1) year of employment by the Committee and shall be cumulative from year to year up to a maximum total of one hundred eighty (180) days of sick pay for 12-month Day Care employees. During the first year of employment, Employees who report for duty in accordance with their employment contract shall be eligible to receive one and one-half (1.5) days of sick pay for each month of employment subject to a maximum of eighteen (18) days of sick pay during the first school year. If the employment of the Employee should be terminated before the full amount of sick leave for which he/she was compensated is earned, the necessary deductions shall be made from his/her final paycheck. Before approving sick leave as provided in this Article, the Committee may require a certificate signed by the attending physician of the illness or injury of an Employee who has been absent from work for more than five (5) consecutive days in any single school year.

Paragraph 132. Upon the effective date of this Agreement, a Sick Leave Bank for use by full-time eligible members of the staff covered by this Agreement who have exhausted their own sick leave and who have serious illness shall be established. Decisions of the Sick Leave Bank Committee are not subject to grievance and/or arbitration.

Members of the full-time staff covered by this Agreement who wish to participate in said Bank shall each contribute one (1) day of their annual eighteen (18) days of sick leave in order to fund the Bank. Said days in the sick leave Bank shall not be accumulated from one year to the next nor replenished during the year. The Bank shall be renewed each year by eligible employees of the staff who wish to participate in said Bank by contributing one (1) of their annual eighteen (18) days of sick leave to refund the Bank. All decisions of the Bank Committee shall be final and shall not be subject to grievance and/or arbitration.

The initial grant of sick leave by the Sick Leave Bank Committee to an eligible employee shall not exceed thirty (30) days. Upon completion of the thirty (30) day period, the period of entitlement may be extended by the Sick Leave Bank Committee upon demonstration of need by the applicant.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

The Sick Leave Bank shall be administered by a Sick Leave Bank Committee consisting of four (4) members. Two (2) members shall be designated by the School Committee to serve at its discretion and two (2) members shall be designated by the Association. The Sick Leave Bank Committee shall determine the eligibility for the use of the Bank and the amount of leave to be granted. The following criteria shall be used by the Committee in administering the Bank and in determining eligibility and amount of leave:

1. Adequate medical evidence of serious illness
2. Prior utilization of all eligible sick leave
3. Length of service in the Rockland School System.

Paragraph 133. If during the course of any one school year an Employee uses sick leave to which they are entitled for personal reasons or for the observance of religious high holy days as provided in Article Fifteen and if said Employee does not use any of the sick leave to which they are entitled for any of the reasons which are set forth in paragraph 130 of Article Thirteen, said Employee shall be entitled to one (1) additional non-cumulative "bonus personal day of leave" to be taken the following school year and to be used for any reason which the Employee wishes. An Employee shall notify the Assistant Superintendent of Schools at least one (1) day prior to the day on which the Employee intends to use the bonus personal day.

Paragraph 134. An employee who plans to retire and who has fifteen (15) years of service as an employee in the Rockland Public Schools, and who has accumulated fifty (50) sick days, would be eligible for a one-time separation benefit and payment for one day's pay for each day over the fifty (50) up to one hundred (100) days at the per diem rate at the time of retirement. For employees hired after July 1, 2010, twenty (20) years of service is required to be eligible for a separation benefit. In the event of closure of the Day Care, employees will be entitled to the separation benefit as outlined above.

Article Fourteen

BEREAVEMENT

Paragraph 140. In the event of the death of the parent, step-parent, spouse, child, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, or grandchild, of an employee or another relative or domestic partner of said employee who at the time of death is living in the same household as the employee, the employee shall receive a leave of absence (with pay) for a period not to exceed five (5) days. In the event of the death of a grandparent, spouse's/domestic partner's grandparent, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, the employee shall receive a leave of absence (with pay) of three (3) days. In the event of the death of an aunt, uncle, niece or nephew of the employee, or of their spouse/domestic partner, the employee shall receive a leave of absence (with pay) of one (1) day.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Article Fifteen

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Paragraph 150. A full time Employee may use two (2) of the eighteen (18) days of sick leave as provided in Paragraph 130 as a personal day. A personal day may not be used to extend a vacation, a long weekend, or a holiday week and no one will be allowed to use more than two days consecutively without approval of the Assistant Superintendent of Schools. Upon advance notice in writing delivered to the Assistant Superintendent, a full-time Employee may use three (3) of the eighteen (18) days of sick leave as provided in Paragraph 130 for the observances of Religious High Holy Days, which shall not be considered personal days as provided in this Paragraph.

Paragraph 151. With the advanced approval of the Assistant Superintendent, with pay and without reimbursement for expenses by the Committee, Employees who are duly qualified representatives of the Plymouth County Education Association, the Massachusetts Teachers' Association or the National Education Association may at the discretion of the Assistant Superintendent be allowed to attend conferences and conventions sponsored by said Associations.

Paragraph 152. A full-time Employee shall be entitled to a Leave of Absence with pay for the reasonable time required for appearances in legal proceedings related to his work or employment as an employee of the Committee.

Paragraph 153. Military leave without pay shall be granted to an Employee who is inducted or enlists in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States. Upon his/her return from Military Leave, an Employee shall be placed on the Salary Schedule at the level he/she would have attained had he/she remained actively employed in the Rockland Public Schools during the period of his/her absence, subject to a maximum of four (4) years.

Paragraph 154. In the manner and to the extent provided in this Paragraph, a full-time employee shall, upon application to the Superintendent, receive a Maternity Leave of Absence for not longer than one (1) year, without pay or increment, provided that:

1. The employee notified the Superintendent as soon as the pregnancy was determined.
2. An employee on Maternity Leave shall notify the Superintendent in writing not later than April 15 in any calendar year of her intention to resume her duties as an employee at the beginning of the following school year.
3. Evidence of fitness and ability to perform the duties of an employee satisfactorily to the Superintendent shall be delivered to the office of the Superintendent prior to the resumption of work after a Maternity Leave.
4. Pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 151B, Section 4(1), Chapter 149, Section 105D and the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993, every full-time female employee is now entitled as a matter of law to a least eight (8) weeks Maternity Leave if she complies with the following conditions:

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

- (a) She has completed an initial probationary period set by her employer which does not exceed six (6) months or in the event the employer does not utilize a probationary period for the position in question has been employed for at least three (3) consecutive months
 - (b) She gives two (2) weeks' notice of her expected departure date and notice that she intends to return to the job.
 - (c) She is entitled to return to the same or a similar position without loss of employment benefits for which she was eligible on the date her leave commenced, if she terminates her Maternity Leave within eight (8) weeks. (The guarantee of a same or similar position is subject to certain exceptions specified in M.G.L.C. 149, S. 105D)
5. Accrued sick leave benefits shall be provided for Maternity Leave purposes under the same terms and conditions which apply to other temporary medical disabilities.
6. An employee requesting a Leave of Absence under the provisions of this Paragraph shall file an application on a form provided by the Committee at the Office of the Superintendent and the employee shall notify the Superintendent as soon as practicable of the termination of pregnancy.

Paragraph 155. When a full-time Employee is designated in writing by the Association as its representative to attend a Step No. 2 grievance meeting as provided in paragraph 192 during a school day, the employee will upon not less than two (2) days' notice if possible to his/her Director or immediate supervisor and to the Superintendent be released from his/her assigned work without loss of pay for such time as is reasonable and necessary to attend said meeting. The Association and the Employees agree that the privilege authorized in this Paragraph will not be abused.

Paragraph 156. In the manner and to the extent provided in this Paragraph and at the discretion of the Superintendent, a leave of absence for not longer than one (1) year without pay or increment may be granted to an Employee for the purpose of enabling the employee to care for a person within his immediate family who is ill and requires care provided that the employee delivers to the Superintendent evidence satisfactory to him that it is necessary for the employee requesting the Leave of Absence to care for the ill person.

Paragraph 157. In the manner and to the extent provided in this Paragraph and at the discretion of the Superintendent, a Leave of Absence for reasons of health for not longer than one (1) year without pay or increment may be granted to an Employee who has worked in the Rockland School System for five (5) or more continuous years provided that the employee delivers to the Superintendent evidence satisfactory to the Superintendent of the need for said Leave of Absence.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 158. The Leave of Absence as provided in Paragraph 151, Paragraph 152, Paragraph 153, Paragraph 154 and Paragraph 155 shall be in addition to sick leave as provided in Article Thirteen and in the event of such Leave of Absence, the Employee shall not be required to arrange for his substitute.

Paragraph 159. A Leave of Absence may upon application in writing be extended in the sole discretion of the Committee. All matters pertaining to salary increment, supplementary compensation and duties and related matters upon the return from an extended Leave of Absence shall be determined by the Committee in each instance and whenever possible, transmitted in writing to the employee at the time the extended leave is granted provided however, that an extended Leave of Absence shall not affect accumulated sick leave as provided in Article Thirteen.

Paragraph 159 (A). An Employee who is serving on tenure shall upon application in writing be entitled to take a Child Rearing Leave of Absence without pay for the purpose of caring for a child of pre-school age of said employee. Such Leave of Absence shall, except in unusual circumstances extend for the duration of either one (1) full school year or two (2) full school years, and such leave shall commence in September and shall end in June of the relevant school year.

Paragraph 159 (B). An Employee shall upon application in writing be entitled to take a Leave of Absence without pay for the purpose of exploring career alternatives. Such Leave of Absence shall extend for the duration of one (1) full year.

Article Sixteen

SUMMER HOURS

Paragraph 160. During the vacation weeks and summer months the enrollment of the Day Care center drops off. In order for the unit members at the Day Care to maintain their earned vacation time, there will be an assignment of minimum fifteen (15) hours. Employees may be assigned up to forty (40) hours per week at the discretion of the director.

During Rockland Public Schools vacation weeks, the Director will provide Professional Development for the full time staff members to maintain the minimum of fifteen hours per week if needed due to low enrollment.

Staff members who wish to not participate in the Professional Development Training may use a "No Pay Day", a Personal Day or a Vacation Day.

Staff members will be required to fulfill the Professional Development on their own time without pay if they choose to not participate in the Professional Day that is provided for them.

1. The employer shall seek volunteers to drop hours.
2. Whenever possible, the volunteers shall be in order of seniority; those with the least seniority will have hours reduced before a more senior unit member.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

3. The employer will make a reasonable effort to create an equitable assignment of time for unit members.
4. The decision of the Day Care Director is final.

Article Seventeen

PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO EMPLOYMENT-RELATED ASSAULT

Paragraph 170. Employees shall immediately deliver to the Office of the Superintendent, a written report of all instances of assault upon them during the course of their employment. The report of an assault shall be forwarded to the Committee and the Committee will comply with a request by the Employee involved which it considers to be reasonable, for information in its possession which, in the opinion of the Committee, is not confidential or legally restricted, relating to the incident or the persons involved in the assault. In the manner and to the extent it considers appropriate and reasonable, the Superintendent will act as liaison between the Employee, the police and the courts in a matter arising under the provisions of this Paragraph 170.

Article Eighteen

PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Paragraph 180. During the term of this Agreement, the Committee will, at the written request of eligible Employees who sign and deliver to the Committee a written authorization on a form approved by the Committee, make deductions in the manner and to the extent provided in this Article from the wages or salaries due and payable to said Employees for group life insurance and health insurance plans. The amount of the deductions shall be paid over in accordance with the provisions of the written authorization, all as provided in this Paragraph.

Paragraph 181. During the term of this Agreement, the Committee agrees that it will, at the written request of the Employees who sign and deliver to the Committee an authorization form satisfactory to both the Committee and Association, make deductions in the manner and to the extent specifically provided in this Article, from the wages or salaries due and payable to said Employees of their uniform regular, current, annual dues as members of the Rockland Education Association.

Paragraph 182. The deduction from wages and salaries as provided in this Article shall be subordinate to first, deductions for Federal, State or Municipal withholding taxes and second, deductions for hospital and medical payments, pension or retirement plans or insurance premiums under a plan sponsored by the Committee.

Paragraph 183. The amount of the regular current, annual Association dues collected by the Committee by deductions from the wages or salaries due and payable to the Employees as provided in Paragraph 181, and a statement in the form which the Committee considers convenient and adaptable to its record keeping procedures designating the name of each

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Employee from whose wages the deductions were made and the amount of each deduction, shall be mailed to the Treasurer of the Rockland Education Association at its office in Rockland, Massachusetts.

Paragraph 184. The authorization form referred to in Paragraph 181 may be withdrawn by the Employee by whom it was executed at any time by giving a least sixty (60) days' notice in writing of such withdrawal delivered to the Chairman of the School Committee in Rockland, Massachusetts, and by filing a copy of said withdrawal with the Treasurer of the Rockland Education Association at Rockland, Massachusetts. Said authorization, if not previously canceled or revoked, shall be deemed automatically canceled and revoked and of no further force or effect upon the termination of this Agreement or upon the termination of the employment of the Employee by whom it was signed, whichever shall first occur. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the authorization or in any other document, said authorization shall be deemed revocable and subject to withdrawal, automatic cancellation or revocation as provided in this Article.

Paragraph 185. It is understood and agreed that the obligations of the Committee with respect to the check-off of regular, current, annual Association dues is limited to the obligations set forth in this Article and that these obligations shall not be deemed extended or increased by the provisions of any forms of authorization or by any other means. In particular, the obligation of the Committee to make deductions from the wages or salaries due and payable to the Employees as provided in Paragraph 181 is limited to uniform regular, current annual Association dues and does not oblige or require the Committee to collect or deduct fines or assessments of any kind which may be levied on its members, individually or collectively by the Association. The Association agrees that all payments for Association dues received from the Committee by deductions from the wages or salaries due and payable to the Employees under the provisions of this Article or received directly from an employee shall be applied solely toward the uniform, periodic, regular, current, annual Association dues for said employee or employees and that none of said payments will be applied by the Association toward the payment of fines or assessments of any kind.

Paragraph 186. The Committee shall not be liable to the Association for any error in making or failing to make any deduction required by the provisions of this Article except for willful misconduct or clear lack of good faith provided, however, that upon notice in writing to the Committee by the Association of any such error, the Committee will make the appropriate deduction in the manner and to the extent prescribed in this Article in the next following pay period. The Association agrees that the Committee shall have the unqualified right to decline to make a deduction or deductions required by the provisions of this Article if deemed necessary or prudent by the Committee to protect itself against assignments, attachments or liens against the wages or salary of an Employee which, in the judgment of the Committee, are or may be prior to or superior to any deductions authorized pursuant to the provisions of this Article. The Association agrees that nothing in this Article shall be construed to obligate or require the Committee to do anything or to take any action contrary to law or contrary to government statutes or regulations.

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 187. The Committee may conclusively rely upon a written statement signed by any person purporting to be the authorized representative of the Association stating the amount of the uniform, periodic regular, current, annual Association dues. Unless and until advised in writing by the Association that the amount of its uniform, periodic regular, annual dues have been changed in accordance with applicable law, the Committee may conclusively presume that the amount of said annual dues is unchanged.

Paragraph 188. The Association agrees to and does hereby indemnify, defend and hold the Committee harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, suits or any other form of legal action or litigation arising from or related to any action taken by the Committee in reliance upon any information, list, notice, statement or authorization for the check-off of Association dues delivered by the Committee, by the Association or by an Employee for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this Agreement or of this Article.

Paragraph 189. In the event of the breach of any of the provisions of Article Three, the obligations of the Committee under the provisions of this Article Eighteen shall, without the necessity of any action by the Committee, forthwith and automatically terminate and shall be of no further force or effect provided however, that upon the presentation of evidence satisfactory to the Committee that the Association has communicated with the employee or employees involved in a breach of Article Three and has called attention to and warned said employee or employees of the provisions of this Paragraph 189, the Committee will limit its action under the provisions of this Paragraph 189 to the employees involved in the breach of Article Three.

Article Nineteen

ADJUSTMENT OF GRIEVANCE

Paragraph 190. The Committee and the Association, for itself and as the representative of the Employees agree that the exclusive method for the processing and settlement of a grievance as defined in this Paragraph shall be in accordance with the grievance and arbitration procedure described in this Article. A grievance is defined as a claim or a dispute between an Employee of the Association and the Committee which involves the interpretation, meaning, application of or compliance with the provisions of this Agreement or any amendment or supplement thereto. The Committee and the Association agree to observe and follow the procedure described in this Article and that any determination or decision which shall be made in accordance with said procedure shall be binding upon the Committee, the Association and the Employees

Paragraph 191. Nothing in this Article will be construed as limiting the right of an Employee to discuss informally a possible or a potential grievance with his immediate supervisor

Paragraph 192. A grievance as defined in Paragraph 190 and otherwise subject to this Agreement shall be processed in accordance with the following procedure

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

(a) Step No. 1. The grievance shall be filed with the Director of the Daycare at which the employee is assigned and thereafter there shall be a prompt discussion of the grievance between the aggrieved employee and the Director at which a representative of the Association may at the request of the aggrieved employee be present and participate. In the event of the absence or disability of the Director, the Assistant Superintendent of the schools shall act on behalf of the Director. A grievance which is not presented by an employee to the Director or to the Assistant Superintendent within five (5) working days after the occurrence or the knowledge of the alleged cause of the grievance shall be deemed to have been waived. The Director or the Assistant Superintendent, as the case may be, shall advise the aggrieved employee in writing of the decision concerning the grievance within five (5) working days after the grievance was presented.

(b) Step No. 2. In the event that a grievance is not settled in Step No. 1, the aggrieved employee or the Association may within five (5) working days after the date of the decision in Step No. 1, submit the employee's grievance in writing, signed by the aggrieved employee on a form jointly prepared by the Committee and the Association and delivered to the Office of the Superintendent of Schools. The written grievance shall state the available facts concerning the alleged grievance, the provision or provisions of this Agreement allegedly violated and the relief desired. Within ten (10) working days after the receipt of the written grievance there shall be a discussion with respect to said grievance between the aggrieved employee and the Superintendent at which a representative of the Association shall be present and participate. In the event of the absence or disability of the Superintendent, the Assistant to the Superintendent shall act on behalf of the Superintendent. Within five (5) working days after the conclusion of the discussion as provided in this Step No. 2, the Superintendent or the Assistant to the Superintendent, as the case may be, shall advise the aggrieved employee and the Association in writing of the decision concerning said grievance.

(c) Step No. 3. In the event that the decision under Step No. 2 is not satisfactory, the aggrieved employee or the Association may within five (5) working days after the date of said decision file a written appeal to the School Committee requesting that the Committee investigate the grievance. Within five (5) working days after the receipt of the written appeal the grievance shall be discussed among the aggrieved employee, an accredited representative of the Association and not less than three (3) members of the School Committee. The School Committee shall within five (5) working days after the conclusion of the discussion as provided in this Step No. 3 advise the aggrieved employee and the Association in writing of its decision concerning said grievance.

Two (2) or more separate current grievances otherwise subject to this Agreement which involve the same matter or question and which affect a group or a class of employees may in the written request to the other Party by the Committee or by the Association, be consolidated and processed as a single grievance provided, however, that such procedure shall be subject to all the provisions of this Article

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

Paragraph 193. In the event that a grievance is not settled after the completion of the grievance procedure prescribed in Paragraph 192, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the following procedure

- (a) The request for arbitration may be made by the Association or by the Committee by notification in writing to the other Party within five (5) working days after the date of the final determination under the grievance procedure as provided in Step No. 2 in Paragraph 192.
- (b) Within ten (10) working days after such notification, the Party requesting arbitration shall execute and mail a written request to the American Arbitration Association, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02108 for the appointment of an arbitrator and a copy of said request shall be simultaneously mailed to the other Party, unless during the said ten (10) days period, the Committee and the Association mutually agree upon an arbitrator.
- (c) The request for arbitration shall state the provision or provisions of this Agreement on which the grievance is based and shall state the remedy or the relief sought by the Party requesting arbitration.
- (d) The authority of the arbitrator shall be limited to the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to the question or questions which are submitted. The arbitrator shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and he/she shall not have any authority to change the established Salary Schedule or other forms of compensation as provided in the Agreement nor to add to, subtract from, modify or otherwise change any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator may not award back pay or any other form of compensation effective on or retroactive to a date earlier than the beginning of the school year prior to the filing of the written grievance as provided in Step No. 2 in Paragraph 192. The arbitrator shall have the authority to enjoin violations of this Agreement and to award compensatory and other damages
- (e) The arbitrator shall mail his written decision simultaneously to the Committee, to the Association and to the aggrieved employee within fifteen (15) days after the final submission. The decision by the arbitrator shall be final and conclusively binding upon the Committee, the Association and the aggrieved employee
- (f) The expense of the arbitrator and the expenses directly related to the arbitration hearing shall be shared equally by the Committee and by the Association.

Paragraph 194. By mutual agreement in writing between the Committee and the Association, a grievance otherwise subject to the grievance procedure as provided in Paragraph

Rockland Education Association Day Care Employees Agreement

190 and in Paragraph 191 and otherwise subject to this Agreement may be initiated at Step No. 2 of the grievance procedure or directly submitted to arbitration as prescribed in Paragraph 192. A matter referred for disposition in accordance with the procedure provided in this Article shall not be referred to or processed by the Committee or by the Association before any State or Federal regulatory agency.

Paragraph 195. Except where an extension of time has been sought and obtained, in the event of the failure by either the Committee, the Association or an aggrieved employee to comply with the time limitations provided in this Article, the grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn or affirmatively accepted, as the case may be. The Committee, the Association and the employees agree not to unreasonably withhold assent to the request by one of the other Parties for a reasonable extension of the time limitations provided in this Article

Paragraph 196. The breach of any of the provisions of Paragraph 30 by one or more Employees shall, at the option of the Committee, terminate the obligation of the Committee to arbitrate a dispute involving those employees.

Article Twenty

PROVISIONS FOR REOPENING

Paragraph 200. Articles Nine, Ten and Eleven and two other articles or paragraphs may be reopened by the Committee or by the Association to take effect on July 1, 2025 by a notice in writing received by the other party not later than October 15, 2024. In the event of a reopening as provided in this paragraph, the Committee and the Association agree to meet promptly to institute appropriate negotiations.

Article Twenty-One

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

Paragraph 210. It is acknowledged and agreed that during the course of the negotiations preceding the execution of this Agreement, all matters and issues of interest to the Association, to the Employees and to the Committee pertaining to salaries, wages, hours and conditions of employment have been fully considered and negotiated, that each Party was afforded a full opportunity to present and discuss proposals pertaining to salaries, wages, hours and conditions of employment, and that the understandings and agreements among the Parties concluded during the course of negotiations are fully stated in this Agreement. It is agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall bind and benefit each individual Employee.

Paragraph 211. The Committee and the Association, for itself and on behalf of the Employees, agree that during the term of this Agreement all matters and issues pertaining to salaries, wages, hours and conditions of employment are and shall be governed exclusively by and limited to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, and that neither the Committee nor the Association shall be obligated to negotiate with the other during the term of this Agreement with respect to any matter or issue pertaining to salaries, wages, hours or conditions of employment whether or not specifically included in this Agreement or discussed during the negotiations preceding the execution of this Agreement provided however, that nothing in this Paragraph shall in any way limit or restrict the rights and duties prescribed in Article Nineteen.

Paragraph 212. Except as otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of this Agreement shall apply only to the Employees who are actually working and in the current employment of the Committee.

Paragraph 213. The Association acknowledges that there is and for many years there has been in circulation a Manual of Policies and Regulations, including Job Specifications, issued and distributed by the School Committee and that the facilities under the jurisdiction of the Committee have been and are being operated in accordance with the provisions of said Manual. The Association agrees that except to the extent otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, the current Manual issued by the Committee shall remain in full force and effect and that nothing in this Agreement shall in any way limit or restrict the right of the Committee to continue to amend, reissue, distribute and enforce the manual described in this Paragraph.

Paragraph 214. No addition, alteration, modification or waiver of any term, provision, condition or restriction in this Agreement shall be valid, binding or of any force or effect unless made in writing and executed by the Committee and by the Association.

Paragraph 215. By mutual agreement in writing between the Committee and the Association, any of the time limitations provided in this Agreement may be extended and each of the Parties to this Agreement agrees not to unreasonably withhold assent to the request by the other Party for a reasonable extension of said time limitations.

Paragraph 216. The failure by the Committee or by the Association in one or more instances to observe or enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of said provision.

Article Twenty-Two

DURATION

Paragraph 220. This Agreement shall take effect on July 1, 2022 and shall continue in effect until and including June 30, 2025. The agreement's terms shall remain in full force and effect beyond the duration specified until a successor agreement is voluntarily negotiated by the parties.
